

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR LICENSING BOARD

MINUTES

OCTOBER 10, 2001

CONVENED: 9:00 A.M.

ADJOURNED: 1:00 P.M.

CONDUCTING: Larry Jacobson

SECRETARY: Ann Naegelin

MEMBERS PRESENT: Ron Bingham
Richard Engar
Linda Protzman
Sharon St. John Larry Jacobson

DIVISION STAFF: Dan S. Jones, Bureau Manager
Ann Naegelin, Board Secretary

GUESTS:

TOPIC OF DISCUSSION:

DECISIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

SEPTEMBER 12, 2001 MINUTES:

The minutes were approved as amended.

9:30 A.M. DAVID BELL

Mr. Bell cancelled his appointment.

10:00 A.M. SPENCER DAVIS
APPLICATION RE-REVIEW

Mr. Davis met to discuss his application for licensure. Idaho State University is unable to locate syllabi for the courses in questions. Mr. Davis requested additional information from his professor. His education included a course for the DSM III. He later taught a Psychopharmacology course using the DSM IV at the University of South Dakota. The Board accepted the information submitted. His education is complete. Mr. Davis requested his application for LPC licensure be changed to application for Certified Professional Counselor Intern license. He was approved for a Certified Professional Counselor Intern license.

AMY ALDRICH
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION

Ms. Aldrich's application was reviewed. She is short in the following areas: one semester hour of Cultural Foundations, NAM 550 was accepted for two semester hours in this area, the course is restrictive to Native Americans

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR
LICENSING BOARD MINUTES
OCTOBER 10, 2001
PAGE 2

and it is not mental health counseling, he may wish to complete one hour of Directed Readings; Dysfunctional Behavior, one semester hour, her transcript indicates that she withdrew from PSY723, she did not receive credit; Tests and Measurement Theory, two semester hours, thesis courses are not accepted; Advanced Assessment, two semester hours; Research and Evaluation, one semester hour; Practicum, PSY 661 not a full Practicum, it only included six sessions; Internship, she needs more specific information regarding nature of internship, type of supervision, did she diagnose and treat mental illness.

PATRICIA BISHOP
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION

Ms. Bishop has a degree in Parks, Recreation and Tourism. She needs to complete a graduate degree in counseling. She has completed the following courses: three quarter hours Individual Counseling Theory; three quarter hours Group Counseling Theory; five quarter hours Human Growth and Development; six quarter hours Cultural Foundations; and five quarter hours Dysfunctional Behavior.

ROCKY COLE
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION

Mr. Cole's application was reviewed. He is short in the following areas: Ethical and Legal Standards, two semester hours, he needs to submit syllabi to demonstrate that ethical and legal standards were included throughout his program; Professional Roles and Standards, two semester hours, he needs to submit a syllabus for PS 502; Psychopathology and DSM Classification, two semester hours, he needs to submit a syllabus for PS 501; Advanced Assessment of Mental Status, two semester hours, he needs to submit a syllabus for PS 517.

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR
LICENSING BOARD MINUTES
OCTOBER 10, 2001
PAGE 3

SHAWN EDGINGTON
PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR
APPLICATION

Mr. Edgington's application was reviewed. He was approved for licensure.

JEFFREY GREGSON
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION

Mr. Gregson's application was reviewed. His was approved for licensure as a Certified Professional Counselor Intern.

LAURA HOFFMAN
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION

Ms. Hoffman's application was reviewed. She is short two semester hours in the area of Advanced Assessment of Mental Status.

BARBARA OGDEN
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION

Ms. Ogden's application was reviewed. She is short in the following areas: two semester hours of Group Counseling. The course taken does not appear to be a group counseling theory course. The information submitted describes SW 690 as an overview of drug/alcohol problem as a human behavior problem.

JAMES CHAMBERS
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION RE-REVIEW

Mr. Chamber's application was reviewed. He is short in the following areas: two semester hours Ethical Standards and Issues; three semester hours Cultural Foundations, the course listed is not on his transcript. He also needs to submit official transcripts.

ANN DOUBEK
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION RE-REVIEW

Ms. Doubek's application was re-reviewed. Based on information provided by her, the previous review has been changed. Some of the courses have been used in different areas where they are better suited. She is lacking two semester hours in Ethical and Legal Standards, syllabus provided was for a course that does not show on her transcript; one semester hour professional roles and standards; one semester hours of Cultural Foundations; two semester hours Therapeutic Methods and Intervention;

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR
LICENSING BOARD MINUTES
OCTOBER 10, 2001
PAGE 4

two semester hours Psychopathology and DSM Classification; two semester hours Advanced Assessment of Mental Status, the syllabus does not provide enough description; three semester hours Research and Evaluation.

ELIZABETH MCCLOSKEY
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION RE-REVIEW

The additional information submitted by Ms. McCloskey was reviewed. The area of Ethical and Legal Standards is complete as this area is integrated throughout her program. PSY 5310 was accepted for the area of Psychopathology and DSM Classification. The information submitted for the area of Advanced Assessment of Mental Status was not accepted.

VERN PARSONS
CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELOR INTERN
APPLICATION RE-REVIEW

Mr. Parson's submitted information regarding his Internship. His Internship is complete.

Larry Jacobson, Chairman

Date

S. Jones, Bureau Manager

Dan

Date